

March 14th TEAM EARTH Call

And what we want to imagine together is that this is a worldwide connection, this is an interdimensional connection, a cosmic connection and that we are creating a team of energies to assist with the creation of the new earth. And whatever is spoken, however we share this, whomever we decide to be with around it, the intention is for union, the intention is to bring together every single parts of ourselves into union and then create union in every single moment in our actions and then move this energy forward into the world in whatever way we each feel to do so and also in ways that we may be instructed by sources such as the TOWNN. (The Ones With No Names.)

So, as we hold our energies together in the heart of the ONE, the ONE heart, what they instructed us to do last time was to find the rhythm of our heart. So imagine that you are sitting with the perineum, the root center, connected to the earth. Because we are on chairs we will probably have to imagine that, and we will connect in with the core of the earth and then begin to rock forward and back. Request that you receive your heart rhythm, and that your heart rhythm can begin to be loud and clear for you so that you can come into a place where your mind is quiet.

Finding your heart rhythm then allows us to find the rhythm of the Mother earth heart in the center of the earth. So, we will imagine together that we are going to drop down an anchor, as if we had a tail that can break us through the surface of the earth, then move us down into the core of the earth. Landing with our feet on a crystal or a rock that has our name on it and has our footprints ready for our feet to fit inside them and be aware of what's happening and what's around us. Be aware that we are not alone, that celebrations are being created, circles are being created, interconnection is happening and we are opening to a foundation of a new way of living together. So we can imagine this and be in this space, be in our own heart rhythm as TOWNN speak to us.

We would like to welcome you to this place and are glad that you have come. Those who have been with us before, know that when we invite you to this place, it is the place of the heart that you remember it as the Swing Between Worlds. It is the place interdimensionally where creation is the Absolute. So be with the sense that you are in the presence of the Absolute. That there is no longer separation from you and the Divine and that from this moment as you walk in your world, you are a bridge from the Divine into the earth through the human. That there is a place that you carry in this design and you have been called to fill that place. You have been called to honor the commitment that you made at the beginning of time to stand with others to create a synthesis of worlds beyond thought, beyond imagination and beyond human intention. This is a very important principle because you want to understand that this is beyond human intention, this is not just a human idea of what should happen or how human beings would act in relationship to the world as it is being seen on its surface.

We are going to carry you together to another space, another time, and another intention that transcends the human but does not deny it—supports it and does not only comprise that intention.

So as you are rocking gently and moving with your heart rhythm, this is a very key factor for you in the weeks and months to come. This is because the mind has been set at odds with the instructions that come from the world about what is real, what is true and what can be done. And the heart rhythm stays constant and has always stayed constant for you and each other and for all beings. So it is the rhythm that you will attend to, accord and also trust. So in this time of coming, when there are many voice with many messages and many reasons for having those messages, it is your heart rhythm that will assure you a place in the consciousness of Truth so you are on the team of Truth with the big 'T' and you come forward with that Truth. You bring it and you bring it as a solace and as a balm to what is occurring in the fractured experiences of humanity. So we are developing another earth, and that earth has to be chosen, it has to be accorded and it has to be grounded not just into your feet, but into your full consciousness.

So, as you put your feet in the center of the earth, in her center, in her core, you are also bringing your heart rhythm to bare actually on the earth experience through your feet so that the rhythm of your heart is being imprinted into the core of the earth and it is like a signature.

The one speaking was watching one of her favorite movies – we will just give you this as an aside – it is Arnold Schwarzenegger and it is called True Lies – and she likes this movie very much. She watches it with her daughter. There was a scene in the movie where the two fellows, his sidekick and he were entering into the omega sector of CIA or whatever it might be. And they had to go through having their fingerprints analyzed to make sure they were who they said they were. But they also had to put their eye balls into this machine so that the eye balls were taken a photo of and were looked at in terms being authentically who was standing in front of those cameras. And your footprint in this case, in this instance, is the same thing as your heart rhythm – it's who you are. It is the essence of what you carry. There can be no mistakes, there are no imposters allowed into this space. This is because if you are not in your heart rhythm, and you are not in the feet of your calling, then you are not present in the way that the earth is requesting that the team is espousing relationship with and the new earth requires.

And this isn't just I want to join a team so you can help in some way, this is really saying, "I have come to bear the consciousness in its fullest expression because I can and because it is requested of me in terms of adding my plan and my consciousness to the hologram to the Absoluteness of Truth." The feeling that I am standing, you are standing and we are all standing in the same vibration of commitment.

This also means, as we have said and stated in our last interaction with some of you, it means that you are requesting of your own being that there are no judgments, separations, segregations or in any way that duality is something you would espouse or live through or live into or want to be part of, because it is over. We are seeing how it is over actually and the framework that you are bringing forth in this particular time is going to assure that, that's why you are with us—to assure the end of duality.

Now you need ammunition and your basic ammunition is your heart rhythm. So we would recommend that as many moments a day as you are remembering or choosing, that you align with this heart rhythm and you start walking it into being. You walk in the rhythm, you listen to the rhythm, you feel the rhythm in your heart, you make love to the rhythm, you wash dishes to the rhythm, you write your sagas to the rhythm, you listen to the music in the rhythm, you cook your food to the rhythm, you begin to feel that the heart is giving you the code of its very existence and it is doing that so that you have a way home that's constant.

Now, this heart rhythm is very important because it doesn't have any other rhythm in it but yours. So that whatever has been imploded or inculcated or taken on or any belief systems or processes that don't have truth in them, they aren't part of this. So when you really are in the heart rhythm, your mind does not have a way to hold any thought. It cannot guide you in the ways of your normal interaction because the heart rhythm doesn't have a thought normality to it. So what we are giving you is a key to paradise, it is a key to transcending any challenge you have. And for some of you, the challenge is money, for some of you the challenge is relationship or health or where you live, the environment or whatever else it might be. It doesn't matter because it is all the same really because it is an expression of duality because of course if you have any of those things, there is a disconnection from your universal sourcing in some way or another so we are going to open that freeway for you so that the pathway from the heart rhythm becomes more solid and so all the time we are here together you want to reassure that, you want to stabilize that and you want to galvanize it, you want to catalyze it. And you want to feel that your heart rhythm is your key not just to the Akashik records or not just to be part of the earth team or not just to the new earth. It's the key to solving whatever dilemmas you might abstractedly believe survive through your conscious awareness regardless of how much you meditate, pray or intend. So it's kind of a panes Thea for whatever is not actually working in harmony as you wish to create it, itself in your experience.

So the heart rhythm then, as you get it stabilized in your own consciousness, in your own body, in your own heart, in your own awareness, begins to lay a pathway from you to the center of the core of the earth. So our job together this evening is to start creating those pathways individually so that then we begin to do this pillar action which we did for many many years where the pillar turns clockwise and Christ consciousness just to bring all of our influences, all of our catalytic converters – taking the environment and making something out of that, that is going to be healthy and have wellbeing in it. And you are going to begin to feel that your energy system is working much more diligently without input from you in terms of using your energy. So if any of you are tired or feeling a little bit stressed or not quiet in the mood of creation, as many moments a day as you would like to be or your ideas are coming and are not grounding, there is not an anchoring of who you are in the world as strongly as you would wish it to be. This foundation that we are creating through the heart rhythm is a way to make that happen. It is a way to create a galvanized energy, it's very very magnified and you walk the path in and as you walk the path in, you are going towards the destination and the destination is Oneness to a big pillar that's standing upright in the middle of the core of the earth. And as the core of the earth as we know it but as we approach it and actually come to the center together or individually or find each other there for however the timing works for each of us. The pillar of energy that's there like the big spike circulates through us and activates our intentions from the promise of our blueprints. So not just mental intentions but the truest essence of what we came to provide.

Now that actually then begins to multiply through the pillar that we are standing in so that there is communication in and through all of those aspects of who we are – all the rhythms and all the rhythms are joined in the one wave of the transcended piece that is promised to this planet, to her people and to the organic nature of substance itself actually, the substance itself – the Absolute.

So each of you wants to be a part of that absoluteness and we want you also to be part of that because that is where it's at. Nothing else is happening if it is not happening there because the core the earth is where the spiral is beginning that is going to transform the planet. And what is needed in this spiral are many many player, different types of people, with different types of capacities and awareness and essences and continuity – you know this continuity of everything building and everything expanding and everything activating.

As we open to the pillar, so we walk our own path way so each of you will do that and we will guide you in meditation or visualization or whatever you want to call it, don't worry about what it is, we are just going to walk it into being until you feel each other closely. And you are going to feel lots of people who are not a part of this who are not on the telephone call but are already arrived here and are awaiting you or who are holding your space or who have invited you or who are listening later on or who are coming later on, doesn't matter the timing and the energy is going to activate so that the spinning of it becomes an ordered reality like a domino effect that allows the wave to grow.

Now what's also important is that we actually take the energy that we are creating in this field of unified experience and share it everywhere we can. So after we come into the pillar and coalesce our energy and feel a spiral occurring there, we then take that out in ever widening circles so that it actually fills the earth and then overflows on top and around the earth like we said before like the Benjamin Moore symbol. So it's going to come up and come around the earth and flow back to the bottom of her core, up to the center again, it's kind of like maybe one of those chocolate machines that you see at weddings you know as chocolate fondue or chocolate whatever you want to dip your chocolate into or whatever you want to dip into your chocolate flowing up and around and then there is more of it like a waterfall. And the waterfall basin fills the column of energy with the water that is going to come on and around. And the same water is used over and over again, in our case the same energy will be used but it will continually shift its awareness and concentration based upon that which is being put into it. That's what is being activated through it. So each of you has a role to play in this.

So some of you are earth people, your feet on the earth stabilize the earth herself. Some of you are from the kingdom and you listen to the messages of the earth worms and the crystals and the different beings and minerals and all of these elements and essences like the Moon and the Stars and the Sun and the collective consciousness of the Oceans and the way all of these things move.

Some of you are here for the children, some of you are here for the elderly and some of you are here just for certain animals and some of you are here for the essence of Truth or Order or Lighter Beings or some of you are here for Love or Compassion or Wisdom or Understanding. Some of you are here to bring it together or some of you are here to throw match so that what is needing to be burnt will burn. Some of you are activators and initiators and shape shifters and some of you are opening and expanding and reaching beyond what others are aware of and doesn't matter what your part is, your part is necessary. So as we go through these different ideas and we stimulate different parts of your consciousness, what becomes imperative for us from our level here speaking to you is that you see yourself as you are.

You see it as it is, you are happy being who you are, you are happy bringing what you bring, you are happy connecting to what you connect to, your stratifying your consciousness so that it has impact and you recognize that and you accept that and you acknowledge the Divinity of it but also the necessity of your being part of this pattern. So anything that doesn't feel good to you about you is gone because it's not needed any more to move you forward. You are just standing in the grace of what's being created because you know you belong here. And if you are not sure what your part is, you will find out because all of this kind of symmetrically opens out and becomes clear all the pieces of the dynamics have to be shown for it to move forward. So you are in the correct place for the correct time for the correct reason for the correct intention that comes from essence not from thought. So as you are thinking about all these aspects and being with them and foundationing through them, we create a big circle. So we are going to imagine that there is a huge huge circle bigger than any one we have ever seen, it is a huge universal circle. And there are all kinds of beings in it, not just human beings with different colored skin but individuals with different kinds of body parts and different kinds of essence, factors and different kinds of orientations. Different kinds of light being and different colored beings, you know different blue beings and violet beings and green beings and yellow beings and orange beings and beings with big eyes and small eyes, beings with large antennae and all around you there is this intention that is not of the mind but of the essence for union for joining together in this huge circle of infinite Absoluteness. So that is our intention for tonight! 'Infinite Absoluteness'

And as we are standing and holding hands, these huge circles, the beings of light are also present without form but you will feel that you are holding the essence of one of them next to you perhaps around you. It doesn't matter what you think you can see, close your eyes and feel. Acknowledge that as you feel your heart rhythm and as you feel the energy within you, there is a coming together of all forces. There is nothing to do, the joining is organic, an autonomous shifting of separation to union because it is possible now and there is nothing else that is important than just be part of this amazing expansion of being.

And feel yourself moving back and forth as you stand in the core of the center of the earth without limitation. So sometimes you will be in your body and sometimes you won't and sometimes you will go forward towards the center of the column that you can see in the center of this huge circle and sometimes you will be moving back beyond it and you will just be floating and connecting and moving and aware all at the same time.

Everything you have ever defined reality by you can let go of right now and open up and allow reality to be what it really is.

No time, no distance, no separation. Blending, moving everything together, understanding what's it like to truly be in Oneness.

And now we are going to imagine together that we are coming closer to the center of the circle we are taking our pathway, walking it, dancing it, skipping it, flipping through it, you are going to flip through, whatever, you are just going to go towards the center on your own pathway. So, like each of you has a slice of a pizza and you are all going to walk towards the point of the pizza which is in the center of the circle and you are just going to go there now, very very steadily and softly and gently, just steadily, and sometimes it will move forward and move back a little bit. Just a wave, it's okay and what you are really aware of is the intensity of the circle is growing. You are feeling something, you don't know what it is – it is okay, it is just intensity. Some of you hope for intensity and that is fine too. And you move forward together in a wave and then you move back and there is more momentum and you move closer to the center the next time. And it's absolutely organic, so just flows in and out, like our breath, in and out. And now you may feel, some of you are going to feel that there is energy behind you, underneath you, above you, in front of you. Then no longer are you only one distinct being, you are being surrounded by other beings. You are actually beginning to lose attention to detail, knowing who you are by your identity. Just letting it go. Let your identity go. Just beginning to feel like all of those parts of you that have wanted to express can now be fully alive, interconnected with all of life everywhere. In all dimensions

And now imagine or sense of feel it that we are actually stopping the movement and that we are all very close to the center and that in some way not logical, we are unifying with each other and there is no space between us anymore. Although we know who we are, we just are not taking up any real room and there is many many of us and we have one breath right now. And our heart rhythms are staying distinct, at the same time they are joining and and we are resting in this infinite space of Absoluteness. We are absolutely here. We are absolutely connected. And in this connection is a huge, huge wave of integrity – it is very strongly packed, and held in the source light of creation. And now allow that source light of creation to fill you up, all around, within, a sense of destiny that which you came for, that which you have been waiting for. You lay down your pain and embrace each other in this beautiful dawn of humanity. And you take it in, you absorb it, you breath it, you imbue it, it is in now and it's the most important part - feeling the connection. and now from the center we are rising as a column of light, so we are dissolving into the column of light, lifting out of the core of the earth, higher and higher, lighter and freer. And now we feel like we are actually becoming molecules that are moving around the earth. Every direction, every space of the earth is being surrounded in the light of the One. In the heart of the One. In the One heart - experience of being in Oneness.

And the motion continues, so we come from the bottom of the core of the earth column and we move up and around the earth. And it is very gentle but it is very constant. Moving up, surrounding the earth in this field of energy and coming back to the center of the core and up through the center again. Over and over again, and what we are doing is, we are displaying and sharing and opening onto all the riches of the Universe. We are part of the riches of the Universe. We are part of the consciousness of the Universe. It is what it is because we all are opening onto that and expanding that.

Now, as you looking at this picture and this sensation and having this vision, you are also aware of the different beings that are accompanying us as we do this process. Be aware of the ships that have arrived, the beings that are here, the energies that are being integrated with ours. That we have called forth from this intention. And imagine again that the union that we have felt with each other and with this huge display of these celebratory energies is now being shared with more galactic forces. And let your awareness for a few moments celebrate this, feel this connection and imprinted in your awareness that it's now one world comprised of many worlds and that is the definition of the new earth. That we all walked together in the same fields, calling those fields to ripeness us again. Planetary plenty, plenty of food, water and resources for all people. There are perfect conditions for the growth of all animals and species. There are optimal air passages in all the beings that breathe air. The brain circuits are awake again, more and more of the percentage of the brain is functioning again, the light force energy in each organism is growing stronger. There is no reason to beg or to steal or to compromise another being. Harmony is growing deeply and richly among the people, among all living creatures in all dimensions.

There is no time, so these changes are able to be instantaneous, simultaneous, cohesive, far reaching, changing the game, illuminating the illusion, illuminating the illusion and bringing order, light, truth and union into every life, every action and every relation. This is the promise we are breathing in right now – this is the energy we are aligning with.

Now, it is your capacity to distinctly merge with many, many, many of these beings that activates this new code and brings the new awareness to bare on our present reality. So you want to see from your hypothalamus, you want to open up the light from the back of your brain and you want to shine it into every corner of your earth, every aspect, every craves. You want to understand that in order for the new earth to take hold there has to be an army of consciousness to hold it. It isn't just going to happen because you want it to happen. It is going to happen through the fortification of the heart consciousness on this planet. It is going to happen because the essential nature you carry does not compromise even one iota when thinking of another being. You only think of other living beings of any type, with the heart open. In that you do not have a choice now if you are to be a part of this stratification, fortification, army of the heart as John Henry would say. So you are growing it, you are growing it together, you are growing it individually, you are growing it as a team, you are adding members to your team, any way they want to be a member, it doesn't matter, it's activating it, talking about it, it is holding the space of it. And it is coming back to the center of the core of the earth with your feet in your place everyday. To get stronger in the fortification impacts your body, your psyche, your consciousness, your awareness, your brain, your function. Because every single time that you activate down here, in this place that we are imagining ourselves to be in. Each of you is calling more beings distinctly to reside with you in this intention. Because it is no longer a human intention, it is not even a species' intention, it is not even the global intention, it's the intention of all that is, it is BIG. So as you hold this, you activate cells to receive input from those who are part of this process. Those who initiated it, or those who wanted to be there or those who care enough to stabilize their own field in a world of unruly chaos to stand for something greater, something more honorable and something that has absolutely no enemies. There are no enemies to truth. There are only enemies that don't know what truth is and try to stop it from becoming what it is. That is a very important thing to understand. So what the world is fighting is really those that we don't want it to evolve to what we have just seen it to be. And it is already here! So that is what we are celebrating! Plus we are celebrating finding each other and celebrating being with each other in different ways and new ways and meeting each other and taking off the social structure of how to trust and how to be together and how to organize consciousness and going to the heart of that Oneness because that is all there really is.

So let's together imagine, that we are in the center, we are moving up through the column of light, we are going around the earth. Let's just do that for a few more moments and invite more and more beings to attend this with us and accord it. It doesn't matter what part of the way we are on, we don't have to be together because it's all flowing all the time even if we are not aware of it. Because it's already being constructed from consciousness. It's being constructed from the Divinity of all of us. All the lifetimes that we have been working with the Divine or here with the us as well, some of you may begin to remember much more about your other lifetimes. Because this is a spiral of energy going up the column, which means that it's bringing together all of your capacities from all your life times. So, don't worry about what you can and cannot do because it is going to change anyway. It's all free falling now, it doesn't have no form, there is no structure to the resistance, that's why the resistance no longer can work. And if you want to see it happening, through that hypothalamus moving through your third eye, right out the frontal cortex, you want to see that, giving you the vision of what's real and not the vision of what's always been there. Transform it, choose it, see everything as light, walk in the light, activate the light. And if someone is acting in ways that is not of the light, choose to be with someone else. Activate the truth of who you are and hold it steady without compromise. And invite individuals you love more frequently in the energy that you carry, so you dream of them, you walk with them in your dreams, you walk with them in your thoughts. Even if they are not with you physically, you are walking with them all the time, imagine that, take a walk by yourself and all these beings are with you now, you are never alone again, unless you really want to be. You bring everybody you love with you, all the people you wish you were with, and you bring them with you and they will create in their environment more stamina, more life force, more energy, more light because they are with you more. Because you are carrying them in the celebration of life. Which is what we are creating here. This is a celebration of life and life does not include duality, it does not include negativity - it diminishes life force so we are not having any of that. None of that. And so we are free to celebrate and co-create and that's what it's all about.

So we would recommend, suggest, and request that you stabilize your field through the core of the earth every day. That you magnify your field every day. That you connect in with as many beings as possible every day. That you invite the beings that you love around you more and more of the time. That you get used to having the imprint of those who surround you and love, more present with you all the time, so you are always a team walking around, opening to everything that is and calling it forth and the animistic energy – the energy of being in nature. Celebrating and honoring nature, more rituals, all that kind of stuff starts to be more important to you. You start to have ideas about how to do that with each other and in different locations on the planet. We begin to segue in and sometimes having calls from all over the place with different groups. We start to grow the foundation, the 'I Remember Union' foundation, you know this foundation of remembering the Oneness. We start to collate different organizations and groups and we start to come together because it's time to forge the pathways.

And we know it, we celebrate each of you, we have gratitude for you, we approve of and accord you, we uplift you in whatever ways we can and we apply dynamite where needed to move or shake you. And to move you out of whatever it is you held onto or have been holding onto. Or resisted or didn't understand or wouldn't give up or have resistance about you know, we are just going to blow that out of the water, come back together with the heart, come forward because it is time. So as the new earth emerges, it has different qualities to it and one of the most important things to remember is, it is the qualities that you espouse. You hold the new earth qualities in your heart as the only true creation and by doing that you create it. You co-create it. And you call many, many, many more people to be in that co-creation with you which makes it happen more quickly and more easily and less dramatically and non-politically, non-religiously. No segregation, no identification with any one dogma, a thought – it is all kaleidoscoping together so you can't hold it anymore or because it's too beautiful. The colors are too ripen and rich and lovely and you want to see that. So you just let all the other stuff go. You are going to cleanse in such a way that you will not ever want to do any of that again.

The pathways that have become connected to drama, drop away – not interested. Coming together only with the big 'T' of truth, which honors absolutely every person's essence simultaneously without exception.

So as we close, let's just hold hands again, in the consciousness of One. Way out in the Universe now, seeing all of us in the core of the center of the earth. We are out in space, we are looking down at the earth, down at the core, see all of the beings celebrating and relating to each other and discovering each other and exploring new language, new ways of being, new connections. Or perhaps there are some old ones being renewed and reunited.

And now take your hands that we're holding structure with this big circle and you can feel as you bring them together that there is a lot of energy there. Just bring that energy right back into your heart from where we started. And now everyone is in your heart, everything is in your heart, all life is in your heart. And everything is ONE. And so it is.
