

Transcendence: The End of Duality

October 10, 2018 TEAM EARTH Call

As we start our call tonight, let's put our hands on our right hand on our heart and our left hand on our right hand. Let's begin to breathe in that beautiful big circle that we were taught last month about the movement of the circumference of our consciousness into the circle of creation.

So we are thinking about this, as right in front of us at 12 O'clock there is a point as far as we can see in the future – as far as we can see out into the elements of whatever is around us. We are going to imagine that we are circumscribing three circles starting at that 12 O'clock point right in front of us, so that we can actually feel a sense of movement in a clockwise direction from in front of us to our right side and behind us and to our left side and back to the beginning.

We are going to do that 3 times. The circles are very big and the idea behind this particular transformative circle is that all of our consciousness is contained within each circle that we are circumscribing or imagining – all time, all space, all consciousness is ready to attend us, come around us, and to support us in recognizing and knowing who we are, why we are here and what our next steps are in this process of unfolding. As we spin around, we can do it as many times as we want. We are actually collecting data in our consciousness to support our own transformation and the transformation of the earth.

As the circle turns we begin to feel some rhythm, connection to the earth on her axis. We have the sense that we are in oneness with each other and with her and with the movement of all the force fields on the planet. This is what is going to bring the Truth of who we are into the moment for us and with us. As we are listening this evening, let us allow our consciousness to continue to open and spiral and gather in all of the consciousness and information that is available for us.

Well, we are here with you and we would like to welcome you to this place and say that we are very glad that you have come. We are building a team and the team is threefold. There is a team of extraterrestrial beings in the core of the earth and these beings are settling the compass of earth so that the consciousness of the people becomes more attuned to the Truth of all that is. That means that in an aggregating sense, we are bringing together time and order, space and being. We are allowing for our own energies to join with the core earth energy to establish a profound and very strong core that will assist in stabilizing the earth. Every human action regardless of intention, regardless of intensity, regardless of motive and function has an affect on the consciousness of the earth.

As we think about our own integrity, the integration of the four bodies that we carry and the connection to all of creation itself – this is the time in the circling that you are doing right now for transformation to actually happen through your core in the same moment as it is happening in the earth core.

In the month of August, we spoke about how the consciousness of all the beings that are extraterrestrial are now focused in bathing the core of the earth in love, in solitude, calmness, in creation, cooperation and balance.

In September, we spoke about the idea that we are transforming what's on the planet and we are doing that in whatever way we can. At the same time we are aware that our actions, our intentions are but a drop in the bucket for what is necessary to transform this planet.

We want you to understand that there is a critical mass that you are not just adjusting to or endeavoring to join, rather that you have already come together with in your hearts. This is so that the earth and her people benefit from this time of separation so that all that is possible can happen in joining together those separate spaces into Union.

To say that very dramatically perhaps, it is time to act! It is time to know that everything that you do matters, that you matter, that your consciousness is a part of something much greater! You chose that greatness, you chose that connection before you came. So the waves of disintegration that are occurring on the planet in whatever way could be socially, politically, or environmentally. It doesn't matter which way the separation is occurring. In the middle of the separation is the joining and the joining happens when the separation is complete. The transformation on the surface of the planet will occur as the separation becomes more distinct. Again, the separation could be termed anything you want – political, environmental, social, financial, the weather, whatever that might be. There is a coming apart that is happening.

We have talked about this coming apart for many, many, many moons. We have anticipated it and we have prepared for it. We have spoken about it distinctly as The Coming Together of the Ages, when all of the wisdom is going to land on the planet and all that is not wise is going to dissolve. What is not wise must be seen and heard before it dissolves. Your opportunity is to hold that truth, that from the ashes the phoenix rises the true space of clarity. The clarity does not exist on your planet right now and is not something that is obvious or easy to grasp or to utilize.

The clarity is emerging, coming from the deep depth of the core of the earth. In February when the landing occurred in the core of the earth, there were celebrations that that was so. There was a clarity that began in the core of the earth and it is now moving up to the surface of the earth.

As you are transforming your energies as much as possible through your choices, look in the mirror of what is not working for you and see how you are creating it, basically. Clarity comes from within you and within the earth. Each of you and the earth join together to combine the pillars of your consciousness, all of the pillars, all of the spaces. This is so that the integrity that you carry, that you choose and that you have come forth to bring is easier to understand, easier to utilize, easier to manifest.

As we think about this time, in October 10, 2018, there is a critical mass forming of those who no longer choose to live in duality. We can think about it very specifically in terms of certain situations where people are arising to say— “No more, no more.”

What is important here is that you recognize that the areas of duality are going to be dissolving first—the blatant areas where the dualistic energies, understandings and choices have been profoundly historical, herstorical—stories of him and her coming forth from many, many other times. The stories land here and sit here to support this recognition that it has to end, duality has to end. Each of you may in your own hearts have made that decision about one thing or two things, maybe even if we are lucky three things where there will be no more duality.

And yet in this month of October, it is important that you make this decision about all thing So you have these signs in your consciousness—No more duality, no more duality, no more duality. I never, ever want duality again.

In the meaning of that, there is a dissolution in your psyche of the idea or concept of the other, of enough and not enough, of the very normal things like good and bad, right or wrong, and yet its anything where two things stand for something that does not have a common bridge between them. So if a man and a woman are looking at each other with a common bridge, there is no duality even though there might be a difference. So the concept of no duality is the bridges that bind peoples, ideas and creation together, and that is where we are in that place where the commonalities outweigh the distinctions.

So in this month we are recognizing the necessity for each individual core to choose union so that the union in each core is stabilized by the earth and stabilizes the earth. This is so that in that two-way bridge, each of you is being stabilized by the earth and you are stabilizing her as well and you can only do that from a non-dual space.

It does not work otherwise because it isn't congruent. In a lot of ways this isn't about you trying harder to be good or better or best, it is about recognizing that we are at a place where the choice needs to be made. It needs to be made in every case, in every situation with every person so that your heart begins to relax and allow the love that's inside to fully manifest in each of those moments, with each of those people and each of those situations. It is so beautiful when the heart allows the love and the love allows the heart and the mind does not interfere.

In this particular time in the fall, near the end of the year of 2018, the rubber is meeting the road and you can feel it. There will be many cycles that you have to live through, if you decide to stay, that will take you up and down and in and out, because there is not going to be a linear playing field any more that is constant, as it has been in your past.

Everything will fluctuate. It is your opportunity to stay balanced and to understand that the balance in each moment is the clarity that your heart gives you, the momentum that your heart brings. As long as you choose to be here in the next few years, you will choose to stabilize because that is the foundation for this particular time period. In other words, if you want to be here, this is what will happen, this is what we will do together. We will stabilize the core of every living being because we can, as we grow the energy of this consciousness more and more deeply, and more and more beautifully.

So tonight we are actually talking about transcendence. This is for each of you as you balance and stabilize your cores, an invitation. Those of you who used to go to the Virginia Beach gatherings down in Sandbridge with the one speaking and Soul Support Systems, were (recepting) receiving the Galactic Federation, Federation of the Galactic information that they gave you, the places where they held their consciousness to assist you each in your journeys. In this transcendent time and space, in the next 60 days actually, that transcendent energy of the Galactic is going to be available to each of you.

The transcendence that you are seeking is actually comprised of two things, happiness and joy. The way the Galactic Federation wants to very much influence and affect you each, is by bringing you happiness and joy. Transcending duality through your choice strengthens your core and you are immediately able to spin out of this universe—spin out into the galaxy and spin out into the spacecrafts of consciousness. This is to receive the links and the bonds and the bridges with origins that you have outside of this system of terrestrial energy.

This is extremely valuable for you because this Galactic Federation connection enables you to more fully recognize that the above and below is now functioning in a very similar way. The fulfillment of the energies around the earth are attendant upon the earth, and each of you has a role in deciphering or discerning how those energies will affect you and your loved ones.

Now is the time of deep and profound and very intricate choice. So choosing to be in the non-dual space then allows you to have full access to the realms of creation without limitation. This is not a promise or something to tantalize you a little bit here or there, this is the Truth. As your core strengthens and anchors and aligns with oneness, non dual energy oneness, then the experience of that oneness transcends Earth consciousness and it takes you into places of creation where your own system can specifically be acknowledged and opened out to and held in specific ways that are going to profoundly affect your life. This is not about promising you something. This is about delivering something. It is time to have the happiness and joy that has in any way eluded you and it really doesn't matter why, because if there is not happiness and joy there is duality.

And it is so simple. As you recognize that being in that non-dual space allows you to celebrate your life, your oneness and open to all the riches of the Universe, they pour out upon you. This is because you are no longer just a human being trying to survive, you are in a place where the consciousness is building it's own acumen, its own strength, and its own profundity. It is profound.

Many of you are in service to the world, to your families, to many things. And so, as an incentive, when we say that you will be assisting your families and all of those around you as this manifestation occurs, you will then be able to say, “Oh, I could help this and that and the other.” It is an incentive to recognize that as the riches fall upon you, you are more able to serve in the ways that you wish to do so.

The Federation of the Galactic wants to open a trap door on the top of your head and open a gold staircase. They want you to be able to ascend that golden staircase and move right onto their ship, which is right above your head. They want you to come aboard and begin to see what the vibration of the Galactic Federation energy provide for you—how you have access to all wisdom and knowledge from that space. More important and primarily significant for you is that the air, the energy, the space, the presence – everything in the ship that you enter—exists in a non-dual space. Exists only in oneness. There is no competition, so separation, no judgment, no time, no need. It is all in oneness. In absoluteness, it is in oneness.

The portal through which you will move in and out of this consciousness is extremely simple. So the opening in the top of your head, the flying over the stairs, lifting out, climbing the stairs into the ship, however you do this, there is a space there that you open out into. When you arrive there you are, home, it is done. You don’t have to say anything. You don’t have to do anything. The first thing that happens is there is an energy. That energy is familiar to you because this is what you long for. This is what you seek. It is what each of you yearns to have on planet earth and in a very significant way, is aligning to bring, because the golden staircase goes 2 ways. It doesn’t just go in and out, it goes up and down, both.

So the first thing we will do in a bit is ascend into the ship and then you will grab a chunk of that oneness and bring it down into your body so that your body starts to feel whole again, absolutely alive, balanced, and clear. And then, as that duality dissolves whatever might be remaining in any space in any of your levels, the oneness goes all the way through your body and into the earth.

The movement that we shared with you last time about the huge circles, gathering all that momentum for you, is still in force. This is because as the core energy comes in through the top of your head to stabilize you, it begins to pivot or create a centrifugal force or vortex and the circles return now filled with oneness, now filled with the connection, the configuration of what oneness is. Therefore, you are very much available to and aware of the fact that the heaven on earth idea, the above below idea, oneness coming into duality idea, the core energy stabilizing through all matter and form, that is all happening.

The other part of this that is actually imperative for you to understand is that you don’t have to believe anything for this to happen. You don’t have to think about anything, you don’t even have to experience anything in terms of “I can feel it, I can’t feel it. I know about this, I don’t know about this,” it doesn’t matter. This is because as you lift into this place of non-dual energy, you will rest as if you have known it always and there is no condition upon your receiving it.

So the commitment that you have made to be here, the energy that you have brought with you, the agreements you have made, the future you would like, and the characteristics of consciousness that you would like to experience, are all there. Oneness has everything in it. That is why you long so much to be a part of something that creates that.

The energies of the Federation will actually come in and around everything you do now should you wish that to be true and ask for it. They will come around parts of your body that need healing, parts of your life that need healing, projects that you are creating, resolutions you are deeply yearning to create or have happen, all of these things. It doesn't matter what area of your life would address them or that they are addressed by. Oneness does it all! It is a very amazing opportunity to support the levels of creation as they manifest in your world.

These levels of creation come from this aspect of Oneness and differentiate to make it possible for you to choose to participate, to remember, to activate, to share whatever you want to do with the Oneness. Every single idea you have is possible. There is no time here because it comes in right away. So the idea of spinning your circle then allows you to keep moving and not get stuck in thinking that something happened and something didn't, or you want this, you want that. You just keep moving the circles so that everything gets included in that movement and comes together.

Those of you who used to come onto the pillar calls years ago would turn the pillar because everyone turning the pillar would synthesize every part of their life and share all of the gifts and resources they had with everyone else. This is because the weaving of the texture of the pillar was such that there was only one motion of union and everyone was part of that. It is an amazing sensation to know that you are revolving in oneness with all life. What is better than that!

And so as you bring and fortify this energy from the Federation in your life, it will circle around you and weave all the parts of you and your destiny into a solid moving mass of light. This is not solid in terms of dense, it is solid in terms of intricately woven textured, not a lot of gaps, just really integrous, so that every part of your life has the same vibration. Every part of your life is in Oneness. That is body cells, systems, organs, levels, layers, circuits, relationships, karma, all of the education, all of the hypnogogic conscious and unconscious energies that you have taken on in your life time. The spinning of the circle clarifies all that and makes it possible for you to start again at the same time you are completing your life. It is an amazing spiral that is condensing time to bring order and light! Just for you! And that is the truth!

The Galactic Federation would like to guide you in coming aboard their vessel, expanding your consciousness, opening to Oneness and resting into Truth.

Invitation From The Federation of the Galactic

Thank you so much for being available to receive what we brought, we bring, what we have, and to acknowledge with us that there is no separation in our lives, in our hearts and in our ways of beings, because we all originate from the same point of light.

So what we would like to do is to have you imagine in the space that you are occupying at the moment, that there is a very, very big beautiful light above you that is circular. That big beautiful circular light is our ship. It is very much available to you without condition. Each of you has the opportunity to ascend into the space with us and to have honor to be part of who you are and what you bring and to have us accompany you in this moment and all moments hence, so that we are always in oneness together and there is no longer distance between us.

We have come here specifically this evening to invite you to create with us the experiment of Truth so that each of you and each of us, (there are many of us on each ship – we are here in these United States at this moment) and there is for each of you in this place a foundation from which you can draw. And this is the ship that is over the entire US at the moment. A huge one of course, many thousands of us are on the ship and we are monitoring your actions as a species. We are hoping with you that we can affect large change because it is time for that also because the earth demands it of us. Does she not?

If you can think of a big light, Golden light, very big, and everyone is included in it, if anyone is here from another part of the world, we will make sure you are included as well. Just know that we are pulsing, it is pulsing light, and the pulse has to do with the vibration of the earth. If you can think of her heartbeat, we are pulsing in accordance with her heartbeat. We are here to stabilize the conditions upon the earth, and to help to balance what is happening through choice of the people, because the choice of the people affects what happens to the structure of the earth, her water, her air, and her landmasses.

Our ship is an invitation to ascend to a level where strife does not exist. Where there is no longer comparison or competition, and where you will learn more about yourself, more about your world and more about what is now happening in the lives of those that are in some jeopardy on the planet. This is so that we can assist to balance those areas of discord, of what you could think of as conflict, and discordance of weather, environment, of animals, and all of the areas that no longer feel balanced.

In this moment imagine that in the top of your head, the crown opens and there is immediately a bridge or an entry point or a ladder that you can move in and out of very easily. We will breathe together now and lift into the big and very beautiful light of golden energy that is above you. Just open and imagine that you are going into the ship now, and immediately feel the air. Breathe in the air. Notice how your heart beats now, notice how expanded you are. Notice there are no boundaries. You are floating without need to think. You are opening to a space that invites you completely and there is no hesitation on your part because as you open and feel the openness of the space, it is the same. The openness of space that we inhabit here on our ship is the same space that your heart inhabits and we sync with each other immediately and breathe together without need or concern.

As you breathe, you notice that there are other beings around you. You may be able to see them, you may just feel them or sense them. As you sense you realize that all is expanding in the ship and now it feels bigger and broader and larger and infinite – it is an infinite space. From this infinite space you can go anywhere and see anything. Notice what you want to notice and change what you want to change. Everything is possible because you are in a No Time space, in infinite Order, strong and deep Truth, in an ever-expanding atmosphere.

When you come to visit you can come to relax, to heal, to share something with us, to ask a question, to honor something or someone, to request support, intelligence, wisdom, information, whatever you might want. You can come to expand, you can come to travel, you can come to connect. Every time you come, you will experience something different. Every time you come, you will want to be here longer and realize that when you are here longer, your experience in the world is more joyful! When you return, there is only infinite joy because that is all there is!

This is the way your world will be affected by the transcendence that you will experience in coming deeply into the vessel of our awareness. We would request or invite or suggest that every night you go to sleep in our vessel and that as you come aboard, you look around for your guide. The more you come the more your guide will be here and the more you will get to know this being and have a relationship. The more you come and the more the energy is balanced and accelerated, the more your core will reflect that balance and offer that balance to the earth and support balance with the earth.

For the next few months this movement of connection between the bridge of heaven and earth or our vessel and your heart will grow and accelerate. When you want to accelerate it more, come aboard. Make sure you are going to sleep in our field here. Then when you awake, spin the field at least 3 times in your awareness, so as you walk in the world, you are spreading this non-dual space for all to feel and to know and remember and eventually to choose.

You want to make sure your feet are grounded in the core of the earth. You are spinning the circle of your consciousness way, way out in the universe. You are ascending into the vessel of the Consciousness of the Truth and these 3 actions accompany your life as much as possible.

We will take you for a spin tonight should you wish to join us. We will share with you everything that we can in any way that you choose, for this is your choice and we honor with you that you are making this choice. We also honor that together all of us in every corner of the world who are choosing to be in Oneness are creating the balance needed to bring the world home to the heart of what is called The One. We are stabilized in our position, holding constancy in this country that so desperately needs that, and also is the foundation for the rest of the world. We are holding that space and we are grateful that you have chosen to hold it with us.

We will speak with you again individually and collectively and we give for each of you the blessings of your own heart, for your heart is the most precious thing you have and your heart will guide you home. So enjoy, travel, fly, expand, and have fun!

Joy awaits, and we share it with you deeply and profoundly, because it is our greatest joy to do so.
