

Rosemary Healy, C.P.C.

Soul Support Facilitator in Circuitry Alignment, HeartThread and the Accelerated Thinking Process

Rosemary is passionate about partnering with individuals, groups, businesses and fellow healers on the adventure to profound transformation. As an Energy Alchemist, she assists people in living with more ease, fun, joy, peace, success and full realization of their highest potential and purpose. She offers unique, intuitively-guided individual and group sessions, often combining Soul Support modalities with other transformational energy processes.

Before engaging in her full-time energy healing practice, Rosemary spent 12 years in corporate healthcare marketing, where she developed expertise in the Right-Brain Interview technique and clinical training for psychiatrists on TMS, a new neuro-modulation technology for treating depression. The Philadelphia area is her home. Her family includes her husband of 27 years and four children.

Other Services: Credentialed Professional Coach; Certified Practitioner of Matrix Energetics; Quantum Energy Transformation; Reiki Master; Energy Leadership Index Master Practitioner. Sessions can be facilitated in person or by phone. She also offers services in people's homes for multiple individual sessions or groups.
