Light-Gathering Meditation

Audio

Transcript:

Tonight is August 10th of 2020 and The Nameless Ones are gathering. They are actually gathering more forces this evening. They want you to understand that there is a big council meeting happening. This big council meeting involves all of us. We are to galvanize our energies and actually strengthen our cores, as we have been endeavoring to do this year, and to fortify a stronger presence on the planet. This is so we may begin to stand as Pillars of Truth and Light and bring the order and the consciousness of Oneness here in this time and place.

In preparation for that, they are requesting that each of us imagine that the Beings of Light that we are connected with specifically and organically and traditionally through our lineage, that those Beings of Light are being called right now. They are being called around us to stand and hold their place, to fortify a circle that will encompass and support us and to align with the energies that we carry in our body. Then all around us, these Energies that are coming forth will be with us from this moment on.

This is not just for one evening. This is for the rest of our lives. These Beings are coming around us. There are joint Beings, in terms of each person having their own and some having the same Beings. Then there are Beings that are standing as part of the intention for The Ones with No Names to provide a gateway at this time for Humanity, to be able to shelter and draw forth consciousness and be in Oneness and aligned with the Truth.

All of these Beings are here to support what The Ones with No Names have as a job so that they can also have support in their ranks to uphold the promises they've made each of us, the intentions they have actually discussed with each of us and the awarenesses that we are now opening to integrate or digest in ourselves. As we are imagining all these Beings, they stream in and they take up room, legion after legion; row after row of Beings.

As far as you can see, as far you can feel, as far as you know, these Beings are coming. They are coming to stand with us. They are coming to create a field that is immutable (will not move) and they are inviting you to feel them now; to actually feel them. Feel them pressing in, gently, so that you feel the connection with them immediately. Allow the memories that you are carrying, the awarenesses, the connections from many, many times. Allow those to open now. Start feeling and remembering all that is with you from all lifetimes.

First let this feeling enter into the cells of your body without a thought. Just let it in. Then let the feeling that is in your body open out so that you actually begin to receive either messages, connections or subtle awarenesses; because as the Beings come in, they will open places within you that have been closed.

Feel the cherishing, the holding, the celebration, the joy. Let all of your energy fields receive this at the same time, in the same way. Breathe in this beautiful field around you; and as you breathe out, feel the connection with all of these Beings, reaching in and out of your own Being to merge with theirs, their Beings. Feel the rhythm of their Beings connecting to yours, so that you become One Being. Dissolve your edges, allow for the merging. Feel your heart softening, your soul dancing. Feel sparks of light moving between you and the Beings that surround you.

Now, imagine that all of us are in a field. Some place where you may have been with some us before, perhaps. There are fireflies and stars and moonlight and all around each of us and all of us are the Beings of Light, and our Beings of Light are merging, more and more now.

As far as we can see, the infinite, creative energy of infinite awareness and presence is filling all the spaces around us and within us. There is a pulse connecting us, above and below, and as we feel the Oneness of all of these Beings and of all our beingness, it is one big field of Oneness without anything but Oneness.

All of our form is dissolving. All of our thoughts are letting go and releasing any ideas or thoughts that we have. Our mind is quiet. Light travels between us, within us, around us and we all now dissolve. All the Beings dissolve. Our consciousness dissolves. Our bodies dissolve.

The more we dissolve, the more aware we are of our interconnection and the way that our weaving together creates this fabric where everything belongs and is balanced. We notice that in the field of this Oneness, where there is only balance, we are surrounding the Earth; Just noticing that we are making this big circle around our planet. We are becoming the infinite energy that can bring the promise to Earth and so we imagine that all around the Earth is this beautiful, white light that we are a part of and have created and have remembered.

The Earth, all of the Earth kingdoms, elements and essences, the legions and the tribes and the cultures and the people, they all recognize this light, this transcendence. They begin to receive the light just like we just did, and they receive it fully into their bodies and their hearts and their lives and their families.

We are pouring light into the Earth in every place, in every heart. The circle of our light is permeating all the darkness, the fear, the violence, judgment and separation. It is all disappearing from the Heart of the One.

We continue to send this white light around the planet, into the planet, into the very core of the Earth. Just as we dissolved into the light ourselves, we dissolve the light into the Earth, seeing it nourish the children and the families and the crops, clearing the water, clearing the air, strengthening the climate, supporting all life: animal, vegetable, mineral and human.

All we can see now, all we can feel now is that Oneness of light. Like a crystalline grid that now will encompass the Earth and hold her steady and imbue all of her People of Light and the memory of Oneness and a connection with the legions of Beings that have come now to support the transformation of this planet.

Be aware, again, that around you is this circle of Spiritual Light from the Beings that have accompanied you before and will again. These Beings have messages and connections, awarenesses and truths that they want you to hold as a steadiness in your field now, from this moment on.

You are being invited to hold the presence of the circle so it continues to sustain you, whether you need energy, or healing, or money, or connection or whatever you need there is support around you to supplant any part of you that has doubt or concern or worry, to sustain the essence of who you are and bring that together in the moment, removing anything that does not really fit into your design.

As we end the meditation, be aware again of this numerous and very beautiful army of consciousness that is surrounding you and all of us, the place they hold in the evolution, and the intention they have to make your way easier, more direct, and to support your consciousness as a player in the design of union.

Breathing and coming into the circle, sustaining the circle that is around you at the same time.

Message

Audio

Transcript:

The message this evening is that we are completely held; and the reason that we are completely held is because of the tear in the fabric of the human consciousness that is separating Humanity from Humanity. Each of you has been given a design for this month, next month, and the next; three months, to support you in standing strongly in the world.

It is with great emphasis that we insist that your day be comprised of the simple instruction you were given by us in this experience of these miniature readings, and that you also recognize that you are being held in something stronger than yourself.

Part of the intention that we have created as The Ones with No Names is not just to reveal what you carry, who you are, what you bring and how that will unfold. We also offer you a viewpoint, and that viewpoint is of Heaven, of Creation, of the Monad and the Sophia, so that you do not have a question about the authenticity of this life for you.

We come to each of you to support this unfolding of the consciousness that you carry so that you don't have doubt about that any longer. We are hoping that in the sessions that we gave you, you are able to understand the power and grace that you bring; each individually in a different way, but valuable, necessary and extremely helpful to assist in unfolding the human design.

Each of you, we want you to realize, holds a place in the hologram. The reason that we endeavor, and the one speaking endeavors so strongly to commit to you and to your purpose and your place in this circle that we are holding together tonight, is so that your valuing your own piece of this hologram will shore up, will establish for you, will gather for you a momentum, a presence, a stability; so that you don't question the value you carry any longer.

You don't compare it. You don't worry about it. You acknowledge that what you bring is necessary for the evolution of human consciousness. And it is very true that you don't have all the pieces. You don't know everything. You are just scratching the surface and that's okay. It's a beginning. You all know the chart we could put up for how evolved one can be. That's not the point. The point is that you each have a critical place in this unfolding design because you chose to have it. Because you chose to have it, you have the capacity to fully live it, to fully share it, to fully represent whatever aspect of creation you are representing, and to support the intention of this lifetime to activate that.

We are always nudging you now to activate your potential. Do It! Just do it.

The idea that we have this evening is that you can, without embarrassment or without dissembling, you know, minimizing who you are, without caution or shyness or beating around a bush, that you will speak who you are, what you carry, what your focus is. However you want to share, in two or three sentences only, so that the rest of the group begins to feel the solidity of the mass of consciousness that's carried in the envelope of this action-year for all of us.

You may hear things that ring your bell, or your chime or lighten your spirit; or maybe make you curious about where you want to really be connected in some way, to this person or this piece of the puzzle. Or there is something that you really, really want to give. You want to stretch that muscle and use that muscle to give what you came to give; and you are not used to doing it as fully as you know you can. This is your chance. This is an experiment with the free heart. Right? The free-heart experience, an experiment of the experience. Each of you has this gift that you don't see - because you have it, and who knows what they've got?. You are always looking outside because that is the way the world works in duality.

This is the time to look inside; The time to really focus on who you are and what you are bringing and why you are bringing it and how you can support others. We would like to have all of you give a very short introduction to your vibration by speaking your voice, hearing yourself speak your voice. We would recommend that each of you write down what you hear, what you're called to investigate or partake of or share with.

Right now your meditation sessions for the readings are in your individual groups and it would be good in the next week or so if you listen to everyone's, particularly if you haven't heard it or listened fully. Then we would like to, say maybe in two weeks, we open those reading to everyone so that you have an opportunity to actually hear each other's readings. People can give permission now for that if you would like to, or wait several weeks. Just feel into that for a couple of weeks; how would it feel for you?

If you are all open to that completely then we can do that right away. This is where you have your choice of how it feels for you. You can offer any gift you want to the group. You can listen from your heart and write down what your soul is connecting with. We want to do this so that you can each have the sense that we have declared and witnessed as a group the commitment to each of you to be present in this lifetime for the purpose, ultimately, of bringing peace to Earth. That's what this is all about.

Each piece you have. The p-i-e-c-e piece that you have is here to collectively create the p-e-a-c-e of this planet.

You need to understand that this is the most difficult time that you will experience in this lifetime. This is a difficult time. The flying home of many people without warning sometimes, without being able to share their last moments together, the dissembling and separating and strategic annihilation of life that is happening so randomly, and seemingly so easily for some people, is just hard to bear witness to. As we have said before, this is the karma of these people you are seeing in action.

Each of us, each all and each aspect, all of everything has to literally stand for something else; To stand for what is true and real and will endure, because what you are seeing right now will not endure. This has been promised for so many, so many years, this peaceful time to come. Yet, we must build it, stand in it, stand for it, and call it into being through our Essence. Our Essence knows how to stand in the autonomy that will free us. Our mind does not know. Our Essence does.

Go into your Soul Seed now. Let's breathe into the Soul Seed. That's fingers on the place where your ribs come together in the center of your chest. Two fingers from each hand. Breathing in and into that space. Aligning there and feeling the commitment of your soul's purpose.

We are going to, in a moment, open this field for you to share and we will have a recording just of the sharing, so if you would like to hear it again, you would like to write something down, you would like to communicate with someone in the group, you would like to hear a teaching or a learning from someone, you would like to investigate something, then you will be able to do that.

Stay for a moment, going into the Soul Seed.

Closing Meditation

Audio

Transcript:

Very briefly, we would like to commend each of you for the courage, the wisdom and the truth that you held in your hearts, opened through your words and shared with the wisdom of your collective, to your collective, from your collective.

We want you to understand that you may think that you are speaking your own truth or your own vision or version of whatever, but really you are speaking of the wholeness all the time now. As soon as you start to recognize more fully that you are talking about the wholeness, not yourself, as soon as you are part of the wholeness more and less in your own identity and mind, you will find that all of the yearning you have in your being will be fulfilled.

Take the moment of the earth dissolving into light (that comes from infinite energies and sources that are innumerable, outnumbered, no numbers, no names, no thoughts about origin), and just allow the Oneness of all of the creative energies of origin itself, of all, to come around you. Allow them to fill you with that sense of belonging to this great hologram, which is now fulfilling itself. Feel the immensity of you and each other and fill that immensity with whatever the purpose is that has been expressed to you from your own soul from wherever and from whomever. It doesn't matter where it comes from. You know what your soul is here to be, to carry, to share, to activate.

Be with the moment that you are in as it is shared by all life in any dimension so that the intent and intensity of intenseness of your being, the striving and the decisions and the consciousness can all wrap together now. All be part of the same ball of yarn. Each piece wrapping around and holding exactly what you want it to hold and knowing that there is no way to separate you from who you are, from the truth of what you carry and from the divine essence that has birthed you, that continues to infuse you and that is always present for you.

Know that we are with you, that we hold you, that we honor you and that this is the time to continue sharing who you are with each other in whatever way feels appropriate for you and to give permission for all that you are to be seen and heard.

And so it is.
